My sincere thanks to all who responded with names of companies that had shut down their libraries/information centers within the past few years. The list is even longer than I feared... Here's the depressing death-list:

- Apple Computer
- Aetna (Hartford)
- Travelers (Hartford)
- Pepsi International (Armonk, NY)
- Marriott
- MetLife
- Morton (Chicago)
- American Express Financial Advisors (in December, Minneapolis, MN)
- Kellogg’s * Arco (Atlantic Richfield) - closed ca. November
- Kemper Insurance Companies
- Campbell Soup
- Alcoa (closed its corporate library; kept its research library)
- Comdisco
- Hasbro (Pawtucket, RI)
- SBC/Southwestern Bell (St Louis) - 4 yrs ago
- Ameritech (Chicago) - 1 yr ago
- Southern New England Telephone (New Haven) - Jan 2001
- Raychem (drastically reduced library following Tyco acquisition in 1999)
- Rhone Poulenc (Research Triangle, NC) - last year
- Pacific Gas & Electric (all but eliminated it) (SF) - 1.5 years ago
- Ameren (down to one librarian) - 2 years ago
- Southern California Edison - 1.5 years ago

Unfortunately, for all of you who asked, we will not be able to share the results of our research. Sorry!!
Thanks again for all your help.
