LIST OF TABLES

Table 1: Amount spent on electronic in relation to print-based resources .......... 49
Table 2: Percentage time spent on research by candidate attorneys
September 2000 .................................................................................................. 59
Table 3: Comparative results of time-keeping exercises ..................................... 69
Table 4: Percentage time spent on preparing weekly bulletin ................................ 71
Table 5: Percentage time spent on reference and research arising from the weekly bulletin ............................................................................................ 72
Table 6: Average hourly rates of independent contract workers ......................... 81
Table 7: Billable time as percentages of minutes available .................................... 82
Table 8: Notional cost recovery: January – June 2001 ........................................... 83

LIST OF FIGURES

Figure 1 Information services in South African law firms .................................... 15
Figure 2 Amount spent on print-based resources .................................................. 40
Figure 3 Amount spent on electronic resources ...................................................... 41
Figure 4 Amount spent on outsourced services ...................................................... 42
Figure 5 Amount spent on sundry administrative expenses ................................. 44
Figure 6 Amount spent on salaries and benefits .................................................... 44
Figure 7 Average amount spent on library and information services .................... 45
Figure 8 Average Infospend in South African law firms in 2000/2001 .................... 46
Figure 9 Information professional time allocation September 2000 ....................... 59